Annex to the note verbale dated 1 October 2012 from the United States Mission to the United Nations addressed to the Chair of the Committee

The United States wishes to inform the Committee that it is implementing Security Council resolution 2048 (2012). Under the applicable provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act and the Suspension of Entry of Aliens Subject to United Nations Security Council Travel Bans and International Emergency Economic Powers Act Sanctions Presidential Proclamation, the United States is authorized to take the measures necessary to prevent the entry into or transit through the United States territories of individuals listed by the Committee, provided that the individuals are not nationals of the United States. To the extent such decisions are consistent with U.S. law, if the Committee determines on a case-by-case basis that travel of a designated person is justified on the grounds of humanitarian need, including religious obligation, or that it will further peace and stability in Guinea-Bissau and the region, designation will not preclude entry to the United States. In some instances, the United States may determine that it is obliged to permit the transit to and from United Nations Headquarters of a listed person under the United Nations Headquarters Agreement.

Annex to the note verbale dated 2 October 2012 from the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Bulgaria to the United Nations addressed to the Chair of the Committee

Report of Bulgaria to the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 2048 (2012) concerning Guinea-Bissau

The Republic of Bulgaria has implemented the travel ban imposed by the Security Council in resolution 2048 (2012) through the following legal acts of the European Union:

- Council decision 2012/285/CFSP of 31 May 2012 concerning restrictive measures directed against certain persons, entities and bodies threatening the peace, security or stability of the Republic of Guinea-Bissau and repealing decision 2012/237/CFSP.
- Council regulation (EU) No. 377/2012 of 3 May 2012 concerning restrictive measures directed against certain persons, entities and bodies threatening the peace, security or stability of the Republic of Guinea-Bissau.
- Council implementing regulation (EU) No. 458/2012 of 31 May 2012 implementing article 11(1) of regulation (EU) No. 377/2012 concerning restrictive measures directed against certain persons, entities and bodies threatening the peace, security or stability of the Republic of Guinea-Bissau.

These acts set out the commitment of the States members of the European Union to implement the travel ban against the designated persons pursuant to Security Council resolution 2048 (2012). Furthermore, the States members of the European Union have committed to implement a travel ban against an additional 16 persons (European Union autonomous listings) and have imposed asset freezes on 21 individuals, including the five individuals listed in the annex to resolution 2048 (2012).

The above-mentioned Council regulations are binding in their entirety and directly applicable in all States members of the European Union.
